Executive Summary

The Superstore Sales Dashboard analyzes business performance from 2015–2018, covering 9,994 orders with total sales of ₹22.97L, total profit of ₹2.86L, and 37,873 units sold, resulting in an overall profit margin of 12.47%.

The analysis highlights steady business growth over four years, strong seasonal demand during the final quarter, Technology as the leading revenue and profit contributor, and a high concentration of sales in the West and East regions. While the business continues to expand, the Furniture category presents a significant opportunity to improve profitability.

Dashboard Insights

Business Growth

Annual sales increased from ₹4.84L (2015) to ₹7.33L (2018), reflecting ~51% growth.

Total orders grew from 1,993 to 3,312 (~66% increase).

2018 recorded the highest sales and order volume during the analysis period.

Seasonal Sales Trend

Sales consistently peaked during September–December across all four years.

November 2018 achieved the highest monthly sales (₹1.18L).

February remained one of the weakest-performing months, indicating recurring seasonality.

Category Performance

Technology generated the highest sales (₹8.36L) and profit (₹1.45L), contributing 36.4% of total sales.

Furniture achieved ₹7.42L in sales but generated only ₹18.45K in profit, indicating low profitability despite strong demand.

Regional Performance

West led regional sales with ₹7.25L (31.6%), followed by East with ₹6.79L (29.6%).

West and East together contributed 61.2% of total sales.

South recorded the lowest regional sales (₹3.92L, 17.1%).

Product & State Performance

California was the highest-selling state with ₹4.58L, contributing 19.9% of total sales.

California and New York together generated 33.5% of total revenue.

Phones (₹3.30L) and Chairs (₹3.28L) were the top-selling sub-categories, together contributing 28.7% of total sales.

Business Recommendations

1. Leverage Peak Sales Season

Increase inventory and marketing efforts before the September–December sales period.

Plan promotional campaigns around the recurring Q4 demand surge.

2. Improve Furniture Profitability

Review pricing, discounts, and procurement costs.

Focus on improving margins while maintaining sales volume.

3. Expand Regional Presence

Increase marketing efforts in the South and Central regions.

Replicate successful sales strategies from the West and East where feasible.

4. Strengthen High-Performing Products

Ensure consistent stock availability for Technology products, especially Phones.
Use cross-selling opportunities to increase average order value.

5. Reduce Revenue Concentration

Expand customer reach in emerging states to reduce dependence on California and New York.

Diversify regional revenue to build a more balanced sales portfolio.
